

A bold, circular logo design that signifies a repeating cycle that starts from the name and ends at the name. This is a representation of the brand providing everything required by its customers, from start to finish. The circle is also a universal symbol that denotes the notions of totality, wholeness, original perfection, the Self, the infinite, eternity and timelessness. The green color signifies the beginning of the journey for the company, being agri-products.

